

Margaret Dougherty Cunning

February 28, 1933 - December 25, 2013

Margaret Campion Dougherty Cunning, 80, Of Roswell, GA passed away Wednesday, December 25, 2013 with her family by her side.

“Peggy” was born on February 28, 1933 in Mount Vernon, NY. She grew up in New Rochelle, NY and attended school in nearby Mount Vernon. She married Frank Cunning in 1955 and they had four children and one step-daughter. Peggy resided in Bemus Point for thirteen years before moving to the Atlanta area in the late 1970’s.

Peggy was a kind, compassionate person who’s greatest pleasure, besides raising her children, was helping and caring for other people. She received her Nursing Degree (RN) from Jamestown Community College while raising her four children. She worked at Westfield Memorial Hospital and also at other HealthCare facilities in Chautauqua County. After moving to the Atlanta area she continued her nursing career for many years. Peggy was also an avid bridge player and loved meeting weekly with her friends from the Bridge Club. Peggy is survived by her husband, Frank Cunning; her daughters Kathleen Scodeller (Terry) of Woodinville, WA, Nancy Turner (Curtis) of Marietta, GA, Christine Carlson (Robert) of LaGrange, GA; son Thomas Cunning (Violeta) of Woodstock, GA; and stepdaughter Frances Cunning, of Fort Collins, CO. She is also survived by eight grandchildren, a great grandchild, nieces and nephews, and a sister, Rosamond Welch of Roswell.

Memorial Services for Peggy will be held at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors, 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, GA on January, 11 at 2 P.M.
