“ *Dear Frank,
Lyadel and I are deeply sorry. We will be praying for both of you. Margaret Mary and you exemplified being faithful followers of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May you find consolation in Christ, the Peace that surpasses all our human understanding. St. Paul reminds us that those who have fallen asleep in Christ will one day be reunited with those they love. This is our blessed assurance. God Bless you Frank and God especially Bless Margaret Mary with the eternal reward of participation in His presence where hardship will no longer exist. May Our Lord's Peace and Strength be with you good brother during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Deacon Joe Pupo##imported-end##*

“ Dear Frank,

On behalf of all the Knights' in our council and my family, accept our deepest sympathies for the loss of Margaret Mary. Please know that Margaret's passing is felt by all the members of the extended family you and Margaret have gathered over the years. Both you and Margaret are in our prayers. Please be sure to reach out all those of us who care about you for help when you need it. You will be surprised to find out just how large your family truly is.

God Bless,
