“ The Margaret Wilson I knew.

Margaret always had a smile and was easy to laugh. She was concerned about a lots of things, but I never heard her complain, not even through all those years of taking care of pa pa. She loved her children and grandchildren unconditionally. They were her sunshine.

Margaret will be missed by all of us, but I'm sure she is resting now, and if there is an eternity she will be in that resurrection.##imported-begin##Sara Stansbury##imported-end##

“ Granny,

I just wanted to say that I will miss you. I miss our long talks we used to have. We could talk about anything. It has really been sad for all of us since the stroke last year. It was hard seeing you like that when we were all so used to you being so independent. You were the one who was always helping others. It was very difficult for us and I am sure more so for you. I know that you are in a better place now. It is really hard not to be selfish and want you back. You will never know what you meant to me and the things I learned from you. You were a shining example to me. Of all the things I will miss about you, the one thing I miss the most is my friend. For you were not only my "Granny" you were my friend.

Forever in my heart you will always be,

Love,

“ Grannie, I miss you so much and always will. The thing I miss the most is you coming to Mom's to visit and you taking the time to stop by my work to talk for a few minutes. I also miss arguing with you about how to build thing's or whatever it was, because you did know how to get the job done, but as you know, so do all the Wilson's. You have always been there for me and my family and have always helped me out when I needed help the most. I just wish that you could be here to see Olivia, Tyler, and Presli grow up.

Grannie, We have been so sad since you had your stroke and I'm so lost without having you around. No one can say "Michael" the way you did, Grannie, and no one can ever take your place in my heart. I'll love you forever. Michael###imported-begin##Michael K. Wilson###imported-end##

“ Mama, You have always been there for me, Ben and George, and all your grandchildren and greats, and great-greats. You taught me how to be a honest, loyal and faithful person, and made me the best I could be. Your perseverance to keep going and working no matter how hard life got, must have rubbed off on me, for I keep going even when I think I can't go any further. I always thought you should have been a nurse or something because you were happiest when you were helping somebody sick or in need. You were always there for all of us. Of all the people I have ever known, you have been the most loyal to God, and always put Him first above everything, and I know He will bless you for that. If I haven't said it enough, I am glad God chose you for my mother, I love you, Sandra###imported-begin###Sandra Wilson Bates###imported-end##”

“ Words can not express the love I felt for you. A person could never ask for a better friend than you have been to me. Your son and your Grandson, Michael, brought us together..our love, trust and consideration of one another, kept us together all these years. I could never ever forget you and all you taught me. I will miss you so very much.
