“ Bless her sweet heart,I loved our Lil Margie!!!! A most wonderful,loving,kind and caring Lady,my cousin my Mother loved her like a sister.I have such fond and wonderful memories.the best was the laughter that is what I remember the most was the laughter when mom and the McGahee sisters got together life was good there was never a dull moment,never any dry eyes or dry underwear Margie and Helen never had dry underwear ...when me and Teresa got older we would have many outing's with them and it turns out the more we laughed the more they p'd.. Turns out Reeca was as bad as her mom and Margie..Lord knows what is going on up there with them gals all together..wet clouds for sure I miss them times and miss the girls,but in my heart they are together all the family gone on before us just think of the reunion Margie's having right now Glory to God she suffers no more,.Rest in Sweet Peace our Sweet Lil Margie ... bless you children and grand children and sisters and Brother may God hold and keep you during this sad time,,Connie Yarbrough

“ Granny Margie, was the best of Mothers to her four children, and her grandchildren adored her, as did her great granddaughter.. It was my pleasure to spend time with her at informal family gatherings and she was always pleasant to be around Her daughter,. Vickie, is my mother-in-law, and I know my son, Guy, and Margie loved each other. Blessings to all of the family. I hold them all in my prayers.

“ Margie was one of my best friends ever. She was like a sister to me. We lived a lot together. I thank God for the times we got to spend with Margie and Lynn. Margie was such a loving and happy person, she made everyone around her feel great. I loved Margie and will miss her very much. I know she is with her Mother now and she has many friends waiting for her. Sharon, Tribble, Wally, Herman, but most important her JESUS.
