“ I just read Margie's funeral announcement and was so shocked. I knew your mother when she worked at the mill in Roswell My daddy Charlie Pruitt took your Mom and Dad to get married and they came to our house to get ready because her dad would not let her date. I helped her to get ready and thought she was the prettiest girl I had ever saw. I am so sorry for your loss but she surely is in a better place now. My parents worked at the mill while I was growing up. Charlie and Dora Pruitt are my parents. My dad died 35 years ago and my mama is in the nursing home in Canton now. Anyway just wanted to let you boys know that I have never forgot how beautiful your Mother was. I am sorry again. Dianne###imported-begin###Dianne Pruitt Christopher###imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Chris I can't imagine what you are going through along with your brothers. I know your mother loved you boys more than life. Momma Margie you will be missed more than you know. Chris think of all the good times you have had together and never forget she will still always be here. I love you and know that I am here for you! We love you Margie!##imported-begin##Brandy Ephrem##imported-end##
