

Marie Lewis

February 23, 1937 - December 2, 2010

Born in Atlanta 73 years ago, Ree lived in Donalsonville, Ga from 1963-2004, where she and husband Roy moved to pastor the First Presbyterian Church and raise their family of three children (Debbie, Tommy, and Ann). During those 41 years, she taught Bible School, children's choir, and Sunday School, played lots of bridge and golf, and endured the loss of her husband and son while raising her two daughters. Despite these and other personal tragedies, she had an infectious laugh, a strong will, and a deep faith in God. Even during her worst moments, Marie Lewis believed.

Missing her home in Donalsonville, Ree was glad to have more time with her family and friends in Atlanta during the past six years. Just this Thanksgiving she reminisced about the people and love in her life.

As she joins Roy and Tommy and all the saints in heaven, she is missed and celebrated by Ann and Estee, Debbie and Dan, granddaughters Samantha and Joy, and her caregivers at Heather House.

“ Debbie (and Family),
Thank you for sharing this site. I enjoyed trying to pick you out of the earlier photos. I hope these images and memories will bring you comfort. From the brief obit, you mentioned she was a woman of deep faith. May knowledge that she rests with the Lord be your strongest comfort.

“ Dearest Debbie and Ann, you two have always been the most inspirational friends I've ever had and I am deeply moved by your loss. Being the wonderful Mother you are Debbie, I am sure nothing can fill the void you feel and Ann, you are so full of love and positive energy I just am sorry you are going through this. God Bless you both and I know your Mom will always be smiling down on you. Ziek sends his radiant smiles and love to you all!##imported-begin##Diana and Ziek##imported-end##

“ Debbie I was so happy to see that you had an appointment with me today. You always bring a happy face and have such a warm spirit about you. I knew something was different today. I was sadden to learn about the loss of your mother, but honored to meet your little sister, Ann. I will keep you both in my prayers. May you both find strength in one another your family, friends and in your faith. Warmest regards, Beth J. Smith###imported-begin###Beth J. Smith###imported-end###

“ Annie and Debbie, I have met your mother a few times and I feel blessed that I did. I remembered the first time I visited America your mother greeted me in Afrikaans, my home language to welcome me. That was very special. She was always interested in other people's well being and she will be missed. You are all dear to me and I am sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
