“ Andy and I liked Mark from the first time we met him. He was just that guy.. fun, easy going and you would want him around. We didn't get to know him like so many others but for the time that we did we forever adored him. Mark was a great father and husband. He will never know how many people he touched in the community. Our prayers go out to Bonnie and the girls. Truly.

“ My heart goes out to you Bonnie and the girls. I was blessed to have Kaitlin in Kindergarten and Kristen in First Grade. It was then that I learned of how special the this family was. So sorry to hear about Mark. I worked with him for 4-5 years at Clean Harbors. He was a professional! Great presenter, especially in front of big groups. My condolences to his family and friends. I know he cared for them very deeply.
