“ My beloved Uncle Eddie is gone. He and my Daddy were so very close, so many stories, so many memories. I know this is so hard for my parents. To my dear cousins, your Daddy was so much fun, always kidding, always laughing. I remember he walked up all the stairs of the Washington monument with us and counted all the way. Nothing can replace him, just like Nanny and Pop. I would write more but can't see through my tears. Just know that your cousin here loved her Uncle so very very much and all of you as well.##imported-begin##Alice Kenady Parker##imported-end##

“ Dear Luther: I am so sorry to hear the news that Eddie passed away. I don't know if you remember me. I lived across the street from your Aunt, Mrs. Pitts. ( I think that was her name ). My brother Bob was good friends with your cousin Joe Pitts. It has been a long time. I hope you and Eddie have had as good a life as God has given me. I have a wonderful husband of 58 yrs., four really wonderful children, two grandchildren, and two good son-in-laws. God Bless you and your family, and all who mourn the passing of Eddie.##imported-begin##Nancy Wright Mitchell##imported-end##
