“ Traci, Joel, and Chloe:

My heart goes out to the three of you and all of your extended family. Mark and I worked together at Towers Perrin/Towers Watson for many years together. Joel and Chloe - he was very proud of both of you. I remember a time at one of the high school cross country meets in Jasper when we were both there together, and Mark knew all about the Pope teams' runners and Joel's progress throughout the season.

Running was obviously a big component of his personal life too, and I always looked forward to hearing about his latest ultra-marathon experience. I was always impressed at how hard he pushed himself, but always with a modest demeanor.

Mark left many special memories for all of us to celebrate his life.

*Sincerely,
Ronnie Jakes*

“ My dearest cousin Traci,

I am heartbroken for you, Joel, and Chloe and the entire family. There are no words that can appropriately comfort you in this time of grief. Just know that I am here if you need someone to cry or vent with.

Mark was so supportive when I was training for and completed a Tough Mudder (my 'one and done' race!). He always went to the extreme and I do blame him for the many hours I wasted playing Mafia Wars.

Although he left you way too young, there is no doubt that he loved his family.

*Much love to you,

“ Mark and I began working on a project just a few years ago. After a few days of late night calls working on things, he stayed up until 1 am sending me photos and details about the vacation home in Hawaii he wanted us all to buy if it all worked out.

Full of energy and curiosity, Mark was kind and encouraging. I am encouraged to know he is in a much more beautiful place than this earth could ever provide him.

Peace and love to his family, you are all in our prayers, and we're each here when you need us.

“ I am so shocked and sad to hear this news. Mark interviewed me in 2012 when I was just about to graduate from GSU, it didn't work out in the end but he kindly sent me an encouraging note and offered to help with my search. We reconnected in 2017, after his TW phase, and I just returned to work after a career gap. I was thinking, now I have one more unemployed actuary friend and we became friends on Facebook. Such a genuine, funny and kind person, an inspiration and a role model. I am grateful that I got to know Mark.

Deepest condolences to the family and friends. He will be forever remembered.

“ You were our New Kent neighbor for a long time and we all grew up together as friends and new parents. Our hearts are so heavy at your passing. There are many memories to share but one thing that I almost forgot was your gardening and being so into growing your peppers every summer, you always had so many and they were delicious. The joy you all had as a family going to Six Flags, the intensity and commitment you brought to running was unbelievable and the kindness you showed me when I was down and out after my accident I will not forget..oh and your love of the Grateful Dead. You will be missed and all of the parts of you that shined will live on in Joel and Chloe. We will miss you old neighbor.

“ We are so saddened to hear of Mark's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Traci, Joel and Chloe during this difficult time. We fondly remember our time together in King Valley as new homeowners and then new parents of babies and toddlers. Hard to believe our kids are all grown up.

“ Jack and I are just heartbroken for you, Traci, Chloe, Joel and family and want to extend our deepest condolences. After moving we got to know Mark even better with his spunky Facebook comments, and messages we shared about work, family, moving. One thing I take away from getting to know Mark better is the love he has for his family. It will always remain.

“ So sad to hear this news. I will remember living with Mark for the summer @ the EX house, then next door neighbors on campus. Trip to Mazatlan, MX etched in my memory. Gone too soon, forever remembered.

“ The world is a little smaller now that Mark is not with us. We always compared notes on our Virgo personalities, appreciation for music, and talked about our beloved Buckeyes. He has been a good friend to me over the years, dating back to Derby Days at OSU and the introduction to my high school friend and sorority sister (Traci) at my wedding.

And to my dearest friend Traci, I love you. My heart is breaking for you. Please know your friends are here and you're in our thoughts and prayers. He loved all of you very much.

“ I’m beyond sad to hear that Mark’s no longer with us. Many of us grew up together during our time at OSU. He was uniquely funny and intelligent and loyal. Buckeye for life. I know he loved his family. Happy to have known him and it hurts that he’s gone. That’s bittersweet.

“ Mark was a very good friend and wonderful person. He was thoughtful and logical yet had that extreme side. I joked what is up with your crazy mountain running?! I know how much he loved all of you. His family. I cannot believe this world no longer has Mark in it. His Buckeye friends will forever remember and love him!
