“ *Dear Phil and Family,
We were saddened to read about Martha's passing but rest assured that she is with the Lord in Heaven. You and your dear family were some of the first folks we met at Calvary Bible Church in the summer of 1966. We enjoyed your Christian fellowship and welcoming spirit and were thankful for it. Your daughters helped our daughters in so many ways to get settled into a new church home and city. Marci and Gene Kohli###imported-begin##Marci and Gene

“ I am sorry to hear of Martha's passing. I lost contact with your family after High School and College. My thoughts have sent me back to memories over "45" years ago. When I first think of Martha, I remember her great smile, warmth, strength and poise. She probably never knew she was a role model for me during my teenage years. Martha always welcomed me and made me feel part of your family when I would stay at your home on weekends with my "best friend" Paula. It was special to attend church services with you on Sundays. My thoughts & prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Rita Reed##imported-end##
