“ Misty,

We are deeply sorry about your losing Martin. His life was too short--but it counted in the really important things. The two of you raised 3 great daughters and created a strong home and marriage for them and each other.

You will see him again. Keep the faith as we know you will. God is closest to those whose hearts are breaking.

Sorry we couldn't make it to the service--I have been under the weather.

As C S Lewis said amidst tears in losing his wife, "The price of our grief now was the joy then." And one day no more grief.
