“ *Our thoughts and prayers are with Marsha and Caleb. Perry was the greatest addition to our family, and was a wonderful adopted big brother. We will all miss him greatly. He is no longer suffering and is having a ball with my dad in heaven. What a time they are having up there!! “ I will always remember the time when Perry switched out my lunch in the cooler for a two week old deer hide while hunting at his house, needless to say he had that crooked little Perry grin as to announce he was the culprit. There is no better friend one could have. He will be truly missed, My condolences to the Nix Family.##imported-begin##Kelly Hempel##imported-end##
