“ Into Jesus safe hands she went. I will always treasure one of my last moments with her when I had an opportunity to pray with her. To be absent in the body is to be present with Jesus. Farewell till we meet again. To the family, there is another meeting place keep her legacy going. You are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Essie Waithaka##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry I missed the service. I just received and opened an email from Mary Evelyn with this link attached. I thought very highly of your mother, Martrelle. She raised a fine family and I know she was very proud of all of you. As you well know my mother Dorothe is still confined to a nursing home in Laurel. I am still working at Walt Disney World here in Orlando. My telephone number is 863-424-6852. Please keep in touch if you would like.

“ As I rejoice and celebrate the life of my grandmother, I ponder on the many life lessons she leaves behind. Of the many of them, one is superior to all others...

2Tim 1:5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and my mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

You see, Though I may be able to cook and sew, it is the love of Jesus which dwelt within Mona that she chose not to hide, but allowed to be a beacon of light that planted a seed within me. Now it is our responsibility to do as she has done and let all those we encounter see God's love in us. Sew the seed of Jesus within your fertile families so we can all be together in heaven.##imported-begin##Courtney Kendrix##imported-end##
