“ *Wonderful memories of vacations to Georgia and staying with Uncle Bill, Aunt Liz, and the cousins. This city girl drank fresh milk and picked blueberries along with sharing chewing tobacco with my friends back home in Oklahoma. Prayers to the Dinsmores on your loss. “ To all of her family and friends, we am truly sorry for your loss. I have very fond memories of visiting Liz, Billy, and my cousins and running all over their property checking out things & making homemade ice cream under the trees! I think Liz was funny, energetic, and spoke her mind, which I loved! I am sorry I had not seen her in waaay too long! Praying that your love and happy memories will bring comfort to you during this very sad time.
