

Mrs. Mary Jean Keller-White

December 24, 1943 - May 4, 2022

Mary Jean Keller was born on December 24, 1943 in Cold Water, Michigan . She passed away peacefully on May 4, 2022 in Alpharetta Georgia at the age of 78, surrounded by her closest friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Mary Ruby and Leo Keller, and her husband of 43 years, Richard White. She was survived by many amazing family, friends, and members of her Small Faith Community at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church. Mary Jean attended Quincy High School from 1958-1962. She was valedictorian of her graduating class. After graduating high school, she was accepted to Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan. She pursued a degree in nursing, and eventually she became a nurse anesthetist. She loved helping people in any way she could. Mary Jean was very active in her church community, and would be a part of everything in any way she could. She enjoyed spending time on her back porch with her husband, Richard, and their many dogs, especially Moxley and Pumpkin. They enjoyed each other's company, while listening to the hummingbirds that would frequent their back porch. In addition to living a quiet life, Mary Jean and Richard enjoyed traveling, spending time with family and friends, and heading north to the annual family reunion. She was loved by many, and she will be greatly missed by all.
