“ I enjoyed all those Sundays that we went to church together. We had some laughs and nice talks the many times that we would go to lunch afterwards. You were a big part of the Sole Sisters group and we will always remember you and cherish each memory that we are so blessed to have.

“ I met Mary Beth when I first moved to the Orchards in 2013 - we were both walking our dogs & she welcomed me to the neighborhood. She had a larger than life personality & it's hard to imagine the Orchards without her. She will be greatly missed by her family & many friends. She had a life well lived & is now at home. My heartfelt sympathies to her family, especially to Doug & Melanie who were so good to her.
