“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I can't imagine what you, the family, are going through. No words I could ever say would bring comfort to you during this time of bereavement; but I know someone who can and who will. His name is Jesus. I pray you find peace and strength through Him who knows all.

“ I am Kent Brannon's mother. She and Adam told me about this terrible accident. I just want you to know that I and many others, my family and friends, are praying for you as well. May God grant you peace. May He provide for you the courage and strength to carry on for yourselves and your other children. I am praying for your peace, courage, strength, and that you pull together as a family to hold each other up during this tragic time. At a time like this, we don't know why things like this happen and that can't be the question that we ask. We just need to thank God for Emmett and the time you had with him. None of us are promised tomorrow; and , we need to live every day enjoying those around us and knowing that we will all be together again someday. Please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Nancy T Stroble##imported-end##

“ Dear Rhonda & Family-
To say that Crabapple has been a somber place this week would be an understatement. Our hearts have hurt for you and with you. I will always remember precious Emmett with his little mouth shoved full of animal cookies. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that you were wonderful parents to him and that he was so well loved. You have been and will continue to be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Wendy Davis##imported-end##

“ Rhonda & Scott,
We are so sorry to hear of your loss. You are a strong, loving couple who was surely blessed by the time you had with Emmett. Please know that you and all of our family are in our continuing thoughts and prayers. We join in your grief, while rejoicing in the knowledge that Emmett is in heaven. May God grant you his peace in this time of need.
