“ Dear Mary,

I learned today of the loss of your son. There are no words to express my sympathy or to comfort you adequately. Mary, I will never forget your spirit and faith when we talked about my sister, Sally. I am so very sorry for you and your family and lift you all up in prayer. May you find peace.

Love,

“ Dear Mary, Lee and Melissa, Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with each of you as you go through this difficult time with the loss of Matthew. I hope you will find comfort in your fond memories of Matt, they will live on forever. I am sorry I was not there today to give you a hug and any comfort that I could, I just heard of your tragic loss. Please know I love you so much and am here to do anything for you that I can. I hope you will find strength and comfort knowing that Matt is in a wonderful place where he has comfort and is at peace. You will be in my thoughts and prayers each day as you struggle and question this very difficult time in your lives. I love you so much and am here for you at any time. Love,

“ Mary & Lee,
I cannot begin to express the sadness which Dick and I felt when we learned of Matt's death. We remember so fondly how much he impressed us after meeting us for the first time at Woodmont almost 8 years ago. Though we didn't see you often we did see Matt either at the pool or Kroger and we were always amazed that he remembered us and called us by name. He was truly a wonderful young man that lead by example. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family.###imported-begin###Vicki Carlton###imported-end##
