“ Dairen,

I am Russell & Helen Hones's oldest daughter. I have baby sat for you and Doug when you were little. It has been a long time since I have seen you.

I know this must be the hardest thing you and Donna have ever had to face and my thoughts and prayers are truly with you.

Our children are the dearest thing we will ever have in this life. Even though we don't understand this, we know that Matthew is with our Lord. We will meet again in God's time.

You & Donna know that there are many lifting you up in their prayers in the days to come.###imported-begin###Elaine (Honea) Thompson###imported-end##

“ The best of us, when they are gone, leave you thinking what a privilege it was to have known them, what good fortune it was to have even met them. I feel honored to have met Matt, to have gotten to know him over the years we worked together. I can't think of a time when I wasn't happy to see him. His love of life always shone through, and the people around him couldn't help but be drawn in. It breaks my heart to know that Matt is gone. He will be sorely missed. I hope that his friends and family can find solace in reflecting on how special a man he was.###imported-begin###Blake Smith###imported-end##

“ Matt, a wonderful young man with so many talents, was a friend of my son, Buster Ritter. Buster spoke of him, always in the best of terms. A quick laugh, a sweet demeanor, interested in so many things and people beyond himself. A giving person and he will be sorely missed. “ My prayers and deepest sympathies go out to Haney's (Matt's) family and friends. After living with my cousin Amber for over a year, I had a chance to get to know Haney. Of everything I grew to understand about him, one thing stood out above the rest...Matt Haney loved his family and Amber very deeply; with passion and courage. It is a character trait to be admired and cherished.##imported-begin##Kennerly Fisher##imported-end##

Matt was the first one there to welcome us and made us feel so much a part of the family. I will always remember his smile. “ I am so saddened to hear about you loss. I cannot imagine what you and Donna are feeling since having children was not in God's plan for Ricky and I. No words are comforting enough, there is no logical reason for it, and it just is not fair...HOWEVER, OUR GOD IN HIS OWN TIME WILL LET US UNDERSTAND WHAT WE ARE CAPABLE OF UNDERSTANDING AND KEEP UP GOING WHEN WE CANNOT GO OURSELVES.
I pray for God's bountiful love to surround you and your family and give you needed strength in the days to come.
Sending up heart-felt prayers...Love in Christ
