“ *Dear Rich and Jan-I'm very sorry to read about your son, Matt's passing. I remember him at the Cub Scout meetings and soccer games as "Danny's younger brother", and he, like everyone in your family, was a real nice person. May the American flag forever wave over his final resting place signifying his service to our country. My sons, Chris and Vince served in Iraq. They are still serving their country. As one Army parent to another, I am always here for you. Feel free to touch base anytime. May Matt rest in peace. He will always be rememberd by me. Sincerly, Christopher V.
