

Melba W. Brady

December 24, 1911 - September 1, 2008

BRADY – Melba Webb Brady, age 96, of Alpharetta, Georgia, passed away Monday, September 1, 2008. She was born on December 24, 1911 in the Ocee Community of Alpharetta, to the late William Shields and Emma Burgess Webb. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Loyal B. Brady, and grandson, Stephen Light. Melba was a member of the Alpharetta First Baptist Church, where she served faithfully for 79 years, in positions, which included Church Choir Member, Sunday School teacher for youth and then adults, Church Training leader, Vacation Bible School teacher, Woman's Missionary Union president, and many other things. In her later years, after moving into the Dogwood Forest assisted living facilities in Alpharetta, she continued to support her church with her prayers, giving, witness, and encouragement. She is survived by a son and his wife, William Lamar and Sue Brady of Gray, TN, and two daughters and their husbands, Jacqueline B. and Harold G. Light of Cumming, GA, and Wynette B. and Rev. Bob J. Hoggard of Woodstock, GA; seven grandchildren and their spouses, Bill and Vickie Brady, Cathy Brady, Sondra and Thomas Hann, Deborah and Gary Sims, Louise and Dwayne Parrott, Angela and Steve Zimmerman, and Renee and Rick Jenkins; fourteen great grandchildren; nine great great grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews. Her family, including her Dogwood Forest family, and her host of friends will all feel her absence from this earth, but rejoice that she is in the presence of our Heavenly Father. A service celebrating her life will be held at the First Baptist Church of Alpharetta at 2:00 PM on Wednesday, September 3, 2008 with Mrs. Brady lying in state from 1:30 to 2:00 PM. Gifts may be made in her memory to the First Baptist Church of Alpharetta Building Fund. Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, Roswell/Alpharetta, 770/645-1414.

“ Although Grandmother has gone home to be with our Lord, she will be dearly missed. She touched so many, many people in such a loving way during her long life. I only knew her for the past decade, but she immediately accepted me into the family and showed me that love that was so ingrained into her being. Even though I know she is happy and in a wonderful place now, I will miss her. Love you Grandmother.
