“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Barry, but I know that he had to have been an extraordinary man to raise such wonderful and kind children. I'm thankful for all of his years of selflessly serving the community as well. Sending all my love to the family tonight.

“ When the family moved to Woodstock in 1969, they lived right across the road from us for a short while. John and Barry were buddies of mine. Also rode the bus to school. Condolences to the family. So sorry for your loss. Paula Eubanks Wright
