“ Michael Grant Davila...thats how you knew you were in trouble or I was talking you, haha. Theres so much I could say about you but I don't think they have enough room on here. You were truly a blessing to me, my family, and everyone else you encountered in life. The times I spent with you can never be forgotten. From driving down Barrett, to ROTC, to playing football in the side yard, there are just so many things we did together and that had an impact on my life. I love you and know you are in Heaven right now singing like you always did. I'll see you soon! I Love You brother...because that's what you were to me.
