“ I have only fond memories of my cousin Mike. He was older and I remember always being in awe with how smart he was. He had a collection of butterflies (he was probably in jr. high school at the time), and he told me about each and every one of them. I was impressed with how much he knew, but couldn't understand why he cared about such things. I understand now, and thank God for Mike and his contributions that benefit us all. I know he will be missed and my thoughts are with you.##imported-begin##Susan Kelly Tistic##imported-end##

“ Dear Ann, My heart aches for you and your family. As I read Michael's story, I realize he and my father would have been the same age, and shared many experiences. My father died too young from the insidious disease that took Michael as well.

My heart-felt sympathies,
