“ Jane,

Know that Ken and I have you and your family in our prayers as you grieve the death of Mike. Brothers are special and I know everyone will miss Mike tremendously.

Please extend my deepest sympathy to Gerald who I grew to love while he worked there at Gamps.

*Love in Christ,

“ I remember Mike as a fine young man when he worked at my parents'theatre in Roswell.(Mary & Randall Brannon.) I remember Mike had a beautiful singing voice in highscool. He was in a quartet & was a favorite of the choral teacher Mrs. Ruby White Brown. Since I left Roswell, I only saw him twice: Carter's Presidential inaguration & at Diane Jackson's funeral.But for many years, I organized red roses from Mike for Mother's Day.##imported-begin##Holly Brannon Gilkeson##imported-end##

“ Mike will be missed- a visionary for Downtown Alpharetta, and a well respected member of our community.

Mike was a guest of mine at the Pink Floyd concert, if you can believe that ! He went to many a Ga Tech basketball game with me also, and loved the process and the pageantry of it all.

I would have done anything for Mike, he was that kind of person- we will all miss his gentle heart, his great sense of style, and his love of life.##imported-begin##Wes Williams##imported-end##

“ Gerald, Jane and families,
I'm so sorry to hear of Mike's passing. I know how much you loved and cared for him on a daily basis. I have great memories of all the visits to Miami. Grandmother (Bessie Patten Kimbro Walker) always told such fun, loving stories of her travels with you all. I know Mike is celebrating in a new, pain-free body in Heaven today. With much love, Diana##imported-begin##Diana Battles##imported-end##
