

Michael Joseph Miralles

July 31, 1955 - July 1, 2025

Michael Joseph Miralles, lovingly known as Mike also known as Mo, was born on July 31, 1955, in San Francisco, California. He passed away peacefully at the age of 69 in Alpharetta, Georgia, on July 1, 2025, surrounded by his loving family.

If you knew Mike, you knew loyalty. You knew quiet strength. You knew someone who showed up for the people he loved—without needing fanfare or recognition. He was steady, dependable, and always made time for family. A devoted husband, father, and “Papa,” Mike’s presence brought comfort and calm. He was a die-hard University of Georgia football fan—Saturdays in the fall were sacred, and you could always count on him to yell “Go Dawgs!” no matter where he was. He enjoyed good conversation, meaningful moments, and the simple joy of being with the people who mattered most.

He graduated from Georgia State University and was a proud member of the St. Peter Chanel Catholic Church community, where his faith and sense of belonging were a guiding light throughout his life.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Michelle Miralles; his children Joe, Angela, and Anthony; and his grandson, Dominic, who all brought him endless joy and pride. Mike is also survived by his brother, Peter Miralles, and his wife Karly; his sisters, Felicia Miralles and Madeline Navarra, and her husband Dan; as well as his sister-in-law, Julie Miralles. He was preceded in death by his parents, Toni and Joseph Miralles, and his brother Mark Miralles.

A Gathering of Friends and Family will be held on Monday, July 7 at 6:00 -

A Funeral Mass will follow on Tuesday, July 8 at 10:30 AM at St. Peter Chanel

Mike will be cremated, and his spirit will live on through every story told, every memory shared, and every person who was lucky enough to know him.

We'll miss him deeply—but we'll carry him with us always.
