

Ms. Michelle M. Lombardo

April 15, 1967 - January 31, 2018

Michelle Marie Lombardo, 50, died of pneumonia on Wednesday, January 31, 2018 at WellStar North Fulton Hospital, Alpharetta, Georgia, after an extended illness. Michelle was born on April 15, 1967 at Mercy Hospital in Benton Harbor, Michigan. She graduated from Michigan Lutheran High School in 1985. After high school she attended Southwestern Michigan College. Blessed with an aptitude and affinity for computer technology, Michelle was an entrepreneur who started her own computer consulting business in Berrien county. Later in life, after moving to the east coast, she pursued a career in information technology personnel recruitment and placement. Moving to the Atlanta area in 2003, Michelle started her own personnel placement enterprise which she continued until her health failed. She is survived by her loving partner and caregiver, Bill Lyons, of Alpharetta, Georgia; her mother, Lynn Eloise Lombardo, Benton Harbor, Michigan; her sister, Deanna Lynn Roy (Thomas), Draper, Utah; her brother, Jason Thomas Lombardo (Chrissy), Sodus, Michigan; nephews Steven Roy, Nathan Roy, Joshua Roy, and Dillon Lombardo; her godparents Phil and Marietta LoVerde, Helotes, Texas; her stepmother, Jacalyn Lombardo, Republic, Michigan; and many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Michelle was preceded in death by her father, James Anthony Lombardo, Republic, Michigan; her paternal grandparents, James and Ardys Lombardo; and her maternal grandparents, Virgil Bennett and Elizabeth Allkins. There will be a celebration of life memorial service in Saint Joseph, Michigan at a time to be determined around her birthday in April 2018. She will be loved and missed by all who knew her.
