“ I am very sorry for your loss. I have known Kandy since 2001 when we both worked together in San Diego. We also lived in the same neighborhood of North Park in San Diego. I will never forget that Kandy was the one who taught me how to create a budget and got me started on saving up for retirement. We kept in touch, off and on, throughout the years. Kandy NEVER forgot my birthday. She faithfully reached out to me each time. Kandy was a joy to know, and I am glad she allowed me to be her friend.

“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed from family and friends, we have assurance from the Bible that "death will be swallowed up forever" at Isaiah 25:8. It is my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.
