

Nadeem Alam

March 28, 1952 - November 20, 2023

Nadeem Alam, age 71, of Roswell, GA passed away on November 20, 2023. He was an irreplaceable patriarch of his family, and a friend and mentor to many.

Nadeem was born on March 28, 1952 to Marghub and Amina Alam in Pakistan. He immigrated to the United States for college and pursuit of the American dream. He met his wife RoseAnne in 1979 in Tulsa, OK, and they were married on September 5th, 1981. They would later move to Roswell, GA where he became a father to three daughters, Valerie, Serena, and Melody, and later a grandfather to his grandchildren Kayla, Jamie, and Wyatt. Nadeem worked most of his career in software engineering and retired from AT&T in 2018, but his true passion was Heartfulness meditation which he practiced since 1995.

Nadeem was predeceased by his parents Marghub and Amina; his siblings Farooq, Naveed, and Ghazala; his grandson Jamie; and many loving relatives and friends. He is survived by his wife RoseAnne; his brother Tanveer; his children Valerie, Serena, and Melody; his grandchildren Kayla and Wyatt; his nieces and nephews Kazim, Kashif, Ayesha, Adeel, Atif, Ambreen, and Mansoor; and many loving relatives and friends.

So sad to hear of Nad's passing. He was a kind and gentle soul who seemed to get along with everyone.

“ Nad was a member of our team at AT&T for many years. Nad was a kind and gentle person who genuinely cared for everyone. When times were difficult, Nad would always come by with words of encouragement. Those words were very helpful. He often spoke of his daughters and he had a very big heart. I was sad to learn of the news today.
