

Mrs. Nancy Gardner Fulford

October 23, 1945 - October 28, 2024

Nancy Gardner Fulford, 79 years of age, peacefully passed away Monday, October 28, 2024 in her home, in Roswell, Georgia.

Along with her parents, Ralph Bruce Gardner and Frances Marie Gardner, Nancy is preceded in death by her husband, Samuel Hubert Fulford, and her brother, Ralph Bruce Gardner Jr. Nancy's life was marked by her deep devotion and love for her family. She is survived by her two daughters and three grandchildren: daughter, Kim Hughes, and her family of Roswell, Ga., husband, Carl, and children, Carson and Luke; daughter, Tami Fulford Amann, and her family of Atlanta, Ga., husband, James, and child, Sydney Amann. Nancy is also survived by her sister, Dixie Tyson (Bill), of Stone Mountain, Georgia, and four nieces.

A private family memorial service will be held in her honor at Stiffler-Hamby Mortuary at Parkhill Cemetery where her family will gather to celebrate her life and the profound impact she had on those around her. Nancy Fulford will be remembered as a loving mother, grandmother, and friend whose warmth and generosity knew no bounds. Her legacy will continue to inspire and influence generations to come.

“ Nancy was such a friendly person and she loved to talk! My favorite recent memories of her were meeting up in the neighborhood when I was walking Chloe and she was pushing the cat in the stroller and having long conversations. Sending prayers for peace for her family.
