

Mrs. Nancy Joyner

March 14, 1927 - December 18, 2021

Nancy Irene Cook Joyner was born March 14, 1927, on the family farm near Rutledge, Georgia to the late Tom Cook and Cassie Estes Cook. She passed away Saturday, December 18, 2021, at the age of 94 in Alpharetta surrounded by her loving family.

After graduating from high school, she moved to Atlanta to begin her working career. Nancy retired after 30 years of service as a teller and loan teller from C&S National Bank in Atlanta. For recreation she and her husband enjoyed square dancing, flower gardening, and family vacations. She was an active member of the Alpharetta Frist United Methodist Church where she enjoyed working in the Blanket Ministry and traveling with the 54 and more group. Nancy was preceded in death by her husband of over 60 years, Charles H. Joyner, Sr. and her son, Charles H. Joyner, Jr. She is survived by her daughters, Ann Von Almen (David) and Judy Joyner (Missy), her grandchildren, Christopher Von Almen (Kay) and Preslie Ladd, her great grandchildren, Nicholas Von Almen and Charlotte Von Almen and many loving nieces and nephews.

The family will have a visitation from 6:00 to 8:00pm Wednesday evening December 29th at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, GA 30075. The funeral will be at 11:00am on Thursday, December 30th at Alpharetta First United Methodist Church, 69 N. Main Street, Alpharetta, GA 30009. After the service there will be a family graveside service at the Davis Academy Cemetery, 2198 Old Mill Road (at the intersection of Davis Academy Road and Old Mill Road), Rutledge, GA 30663.

Donations may be made in Nancy's honor to Alpharetta First United Methodist Church's Blanket Ministry or Flower Ministry, 69 N. Main St. Alpharetta, GA 30009.

“ There was never a happier time than the Easters & Thanksgivings at Aunt Nancy & Uncle Charlies house. It was a most wonderful time. Easter Egg hunts when our children were little and always lots of food. We miss them both so much. David & Ginger Embry
