“ Leslie, Chris, and Doug, we truly feel your sorrow, but also your hope. Your Mom was the first person who ever demonstrated the power of God's Word with the simple statement, "There is nothing hidden that shall not be revealed!" (Luke 8:17, 12:2) Her ever-present creativity, both in word and image, was, and still is, a steady source of inspiration. The reason was that The Lord Himself was her wellspring of Life. May He be that same source of Life to you all. (John 14:6)

“ I am so grateful for having had Nancy in my life. As an artist she was an inspiration to me to paint from the Word of God. She had alot of depth to her work and
I can still see many of her pieces - which were her heart - in mind's eye. She was also fun! We shall see you again soon my friend.###imported-begin###Lynne Davis###imported-end###

“ Aunt Nancy, I am sad to lose you, but happy that you're in a better place now. I too have fond memories of childhood Christmases we shared in Florida and the wonderful creative gifts we received from you each year.

“ Dear Family of Precious Nancy,
When I think of "friend" I think of Nancy. When I think of prayer warrior and lover of Jesus, I think of Nancy. She leaves us a legacy of obedience to our Lord and Savior. She leaves a legacy of unconditional love and of trust. She is a part of my heart. She is God's heart beat. She prayed for us on earth and is now praying for us (and singing and dancing) with our Savior. The world is a better place because Nancy Binger lived here. It is my blessing that she has been a part of my life.
God's peace.
