

Natalie M. Ambrose

October 16, 1931 - September 27, 2018

Natalie Marsden Ambrose, 86, passed away at her home in Roswell, Georgia on September 27, 2018. The daughter of Len and Margaret Marsden of Nesquehoning, Pennsylvania, she graduated from Cedar Crest College in 1953, having studied medical technology and later teaching the subject at St. Barnabas Hospital in Livingston, New Jersey. She was active in the churches in the towns in which she lived as a deacon, choir member and volunteer, in Mendham and Basking Ridge, New Jersey, and in Hilton Head, S.C. She co-founded an adult day care center in Basking Ridge in 1988 and was active as a volunteer for Morristown Memorial Hospital where her husband, a physician, was on the medical staff for decades.

Her daughters will remember her as a loving and wise mother, a wonderful wife, a gourmet cook, the director and hostess of many great holidays, a dedicated Christian and an example of strength in times of stress.

Natalie was predeceased by her husband, Robert Bond Ambrose, M.D., and daughter Margaret Uhlman. She is survived by three daughters and four sons-in-law: Judith Ewald (Duncan) of South Orange, NJ; Janet Hamm (Jeff) of Roswell, GA; Nancy Wentz (Eric) of Florham Park, NJ; Kurt Uhlman of Morristown, NJ; her brother Robert Marsden; sister Janet Betz; and nine beloved grandchildren. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, November 10, 2018 at 11:00 at the Basking Ridge Presbyterian Church.
