

Mrs. Nell Richardson Boone

April 16, 1927 - December 9, 2016

Nell R. Boone, 89, died Friday morning at Brookdale Roswell Memory Care after a long illness. She was born and raised in western Tennessee and, as an adult, lived in Florida and Tennessee for many years before moving to Atlanta in 1983. She worked as a medical secretary for almost 40 years, most recently at the Peachtree Orthopedic Clinic in Atlanta. She is survived by her husband, Everett Boone of Roswell; her three children: Phyllis Moir of Boston, MA, Debbie King of Roswell, and Jeff Hurt of Hilton Head, SC; four grandchildren: Amy Dickerson of Denver, CO, Ashlee Watson of Cumming, Erin Moir of New York City, and Charles Hurt of Ashville, NC; four great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at Northside Chapel Funeral Home in Roswell on Sunday, December 9, at 1:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent to the Alzheimer's Association.

“ I was saddened to hear of the loss of sweet Nell. I remember her so fondly from the moment I met her at Resurgens to all of the times I got to spend time chatting with her at Atria. She was a very dear person and always had something nice to say. My heartfelt condolences to Dutch and her family during this difficult time. She will be sorely but I will always remember her spirit and beautiful smile.

I was so sorry to hear of Nell's death. I first met her one evening in the mid nineties when she came to pick up my mom, Rena DiNatale.. They wete going out dancing & were dressed to the nines! She was one of the most fun loving & vivacious women I have ever met & everyone that she met fell in love with her! My deepest sympathies to Everett & her family. I will forver cherish my memories of her
