“ I don't know if this page is still active, but Nick was my neighbor in an apartment complex in Cahaba Heights. His daughter, wife and son joined him and we all became fast friends. Many memories to share with Jen. Contact me, Jen, if you get this. Email: lgmalone508@gmail.com. Much love. Lisa

“ Nick - great friend for many years - kind, generous, self-deprecating and really funny.

He and Jen overcame tragedies and obstacles with fortitude and he made a great success of their life in America. He was made for Command Post and his customers loved him!

Above all he was a family man and David and Katy will be there for Jen at this sad time.

Love from the Esson and Fulton families.

“ Everybody loved Nick! His irrepressible sense of humour got him through tragedies and triumphs - his abiding mission was always to make a better life for his family. When the writing was on the wall that Zimbabwe was going downhill, he and Jen managed to immigrate to Alabama to get Leslie into college. They were instrumental in enabling my kids to get into college there too. Lifelong friendship was made more enjoyable by his welcoming smile and always "why did the spider cross the road?" Never failed to raise a laugh! Never forgotten - many memories - keep smiling, Nick! Much love - Sue Pichanick
