“ Nikki and I never met. I only came to know him through the loving words of his father. It is hard to imagine one so young... being so brave, so sure, so comfortable with the Lord's plan. Nikki surely deeply touched everyone who knew him.

Though Nikki and I never met...I have never before admired a 12 year old this much. The Negron family is in my heart and prayers. The remarkable young Nikki will now always be a part of me. He exemplifies what is nearly always inexplicable about our human condition and even more so for those with abiding faith. I will never forget. With much sympathy. Rebecca Lambert
