

Rev. Nolan Gerald Ingram

April 19, 1947 - May 27, 2020

Nolan Gerald Ingram age 73 of Alpharetta, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loving family on May 27, 2020. As a lifelong resident of Alpharetta, he was a graduate of Milton High School (1967); Pickens Technical School (1980); and North Carolina College of Theology (Associate and Bachelor in Biblical Studies, 2008/2009). As a Navy Seabee, he proudly served on Active Duty and was a Vietnam Veteran. He owned and operated Nolan Ingram Septic Tank Service over 34 years, serving the North Fulton, Forsyth, and Gwinnett county communities. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. An Ordained Bishop in the Church of God, he ministered in various nursing homes; radio broadcasts; pioneered the Fairmount Worship Center (2001); and, most recently, led a weekly Bread Ministry and Bible Study at his home church, the Christ Culture Center (Cumming, GA). He is survived by his wife, Ila Lee Ingram of Alpharetta; son and daughter-in-law, U.S. Army Chaplain (MAJ) Scott and Leigh Ingram, stationed at Ft. Drum, NY; sister, Delores Boyer (David) of Braselton and brother, Deryl Ingram (Pat) of Dawsonville; sister-in-law, Emma Winfrey of Cleveland; and a many nieces and nephews. Visitation for family and friends will be held at Christ Culture Center (Cumming, GA) on Sunday, May 31, 2020, 3pm-5pm, directly followed with a Celebration of Life service. Internment is scheduled for Tuesday, June 2, 2020 at Georgia National Cemetery. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, it is limited to family only.

“ How can one begin to express the loss of a dear brother and friend? We write this with great sadness over the unimaginable loss of Nolan, one who we've admired, respected and loved. We've struggled to make sense of this loss. You had such a beautiful smile, a very loving spirit and you were a Champion for God. Some truths in life are hard to accept. Your departure is one of those hard truths. There is so much to say that this page would not be able to hold, we had so many memorable and enjoyable time, we had a blast! You meant so much to us Chapmans. Your memories will never be forgotten! They will always remain with us forever.

While we are mourning your loss, others are rejoicing to meet you behind the veil. RIP dearest Nolan

*It's okay to miss you,
It's okay to cry.
Just know we'll never forget you.
This isn't a permanent goodbye.*

IT WAS A HONOR TO CALL YOU FRIEND

Well said! Sharon, a fitting tribute to a true servant of the Most High. He had such an infectious personality and will be sadly missed. May his precious soul RIP and rise at the first trumpet to be forever with the Lord. I pray that his dear wife Ila find comfort in knowing that he has run a good race and finished his course, and now there is a crown of life awaiting him. Sleep well brother Nolan.
