“ We will miss Mrs. Janet Leadbeter a great deal. She attended the Hahira United Methodist Church on occasions. She was very supportive of the Hahira Community Food Bank. She would often come by the church and give donations for the food bank to help those in need in the Hahira community. After she moved to Roswell to be with her daughter she continued to mail her offering in support of the Hahira Food Bank. She had a big heart and always had a smile. She was a delightful lady and we will miss her smile and her presence.

“ I loved Ms. Janet! During the time of her illness while in South Georgia, she and I got very close. I loved going to her house because she entertained me by telling stories of her most interesting life. Sometimes we would cry together as we discussed the loss of loved ones, but mostly we laughed as she would reminisce about things in her life.
The last time I saw my sweet friend she gave me 2 cookbooks which I shall always cherish.
Dixie, her prayers were always with you as are mine during this time.

“ Janet, as we knew her, was and active and dedicated member of Salem United Methodist Church near Hahira, Georgia. She was a member of our choir and her faithfulness to Salem was unsurpassed. Janet's Folsom ancestors were among the founders of Salem, the oldest active church in Lowndes County, in 1856. We loved her dearly and have missed her since she relocated to live with Dixie. Love you Janet and Dixie. Tom Weldon
