“ Dear Jessica and Amanda,

*What to say when facing such terrible situation?
I was with you on yesterday @ 11:00 Atlanta time, praying for Wayne and both of you.
I'll never forget Wayne for many reasons.
When I was calling him and he was replaying "Hey DT, has it going today?
I'll never forget when Jessica was giving us news about Wayne when he was sick.
I'll never forget when Steve Burwell and I came to see him at home in November 2003.
When working together, he was always checking his mobile whenever either one of you was calling him, always so concerned if you were doing well.
He was a great man always concerned about securing his team too
Please accept my deepest condolences,

“ Jessica, my relationship with Wayne was a pivotal part of my life. He gave me the opportunity to move to the Atlanta area from Michigan. It was this move and change in my life that lead me to meet my wife, Kristie. For this I will be forever grateful. Even after I left Lectra, our relationship continued and in some areas grew showing Wayne’s caring heart. Kristie and I express our sincere condolences. We pray that you will be surrounded by family and friends in this time of need. God Bless, Jamie Stannard###imported-begin###Jamie Stannard###imported-end###

“ *"My soul is downcast within me.
Yet this I call to mind
and therefore I have hope.
Because of the Lord's great love
we are not consumed,
for His compassions never fail.
They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness, O Lord."*

Lamentations 3:20-23

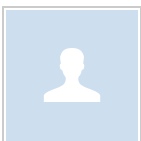

Jessica and Amanda...you are in my prayers. I had known Wayne since 1982 when he took me under his wing and helped get my career started. He extended his help in 1991, again in 1994 and yet again just a short while ago. He was a good man and had a heart for helping others.

We will miss you OWL.
