

Mrs. Ora Lee Rudrauff

November 13, 1924 - June 18, 2016

“Though she be but little, she is fierce!” (William Shakespeare)

Ora Lee Rudrauff, also known to many as "Aunt Shorty." She was 4'11 (but she would tell you she was 5 feet). She was small, but mighty. Fierce.

She loved fiercely. Strongly.

She loved her husband, John Rudrauff.

She loved her family.

She was like a mother and grandmother to some, a friend to many.

And she was loved greatly.

She thrived on order and structure, and her world ran on it. Everything had its place.

She was the queen of casseroles, and had just the right recipe for any occasion.

She was always stylish—from her heels to her butterfly broach—everything perfectly coordinated.

She was a fierce dominoes competitor. She liked to win.

And if you wanted to know what she thought about something, just ask her.

She was little, but she made a huge impact on so many.

And she will be missed greatly.

Thank you, Aunt Shorty.
