“ I saw Pam about a year ago at her lake house. She said it was difficult to walk up the hill to her home.

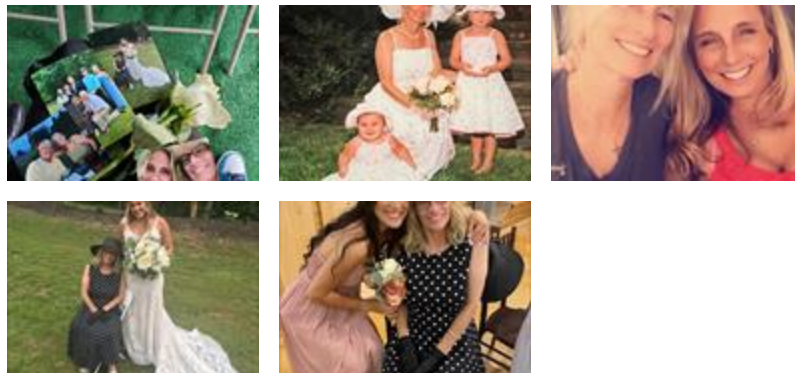

She said, Donna, as soon as I get over this cancer stuff we're running up this hill and having margaritas. Everytime I have a margarita I will think of Pam. The sweetest, most caring, kind, selfless person you could ever meet .Our drill team girls learned so much from Ms Pam. Such great memories she leaves with those girls. Rest in peace dear friend.
