I helped Pat & Cliff with their Medicare since 2013. We immediately found common ground in our love for animals. Pat was an exceptional person, hard worker, and passionate about animals and her work. I was shocked to learn of her passing and will miss our long annual chats about insurance and her animals. RIP Pat.

“ I met Pat and Cliff almost 25 years ago. I took care of T-Jackie, Tucker, Tyrone and others when they were out of town. After moving to Indiana 15 years ago, Pat called me for help with her sister's Great Pyrenees, Bear. Bear was roaming the hills of Tennessee and killing some chickens and Pat was worried he would get shot. I drove to their cabin in TN and took Bear home with me. I did stay the night at their cabin and roamed the grounds. It was a wonderful place. Pat will be so missed. She was a down to earth and classy lady. By the way, I found Bear the best home with a family with 3 young boys and a Newfoundland.

“ So many wonderful memories of Pat when she showed a fondness and appreciation for my Nature's Window bird cases. She loved the little birds and placed many of the Aviariums in the homes and facilities that she decorated over the years. So sorry to hear of her passing Becky.

“ Pat will for ever be in my families hearts she was a good friend and a wonderful business partner that decorated over a quarter of our assisted living communities. Her legacy lives on in those communities even as they go under new renovations there are still items, pictures and furniture that find a place and I every time I see one it brings back great memories and a smile. God's peace Pat and prayers of comfort for your family.

“ My First Cousin. The Matriarch of our Family is gone. 🥹 A beloved person to all who knew her. To all who met her, they were enriched by her presence . She did so much for so many. A Southern Bell, she was not. She was tough and direct, but never unkind. Smart and resourceful. She built a Interior Design Business that took her all over the Eastern Half of the United States catering mostly to Senior Citizen Centers and Homes. Most of all, she was a true Lady. A Christian, and a "choir girl" at the Baptist Church for many years. She is with God now. He was merciful not to let her suffer. Our sincerest condolences to her Children, my cousins: Jeff and Becky. To her Grand Children. To her Sister Cissy and Brother Charles. And in remembrance now to be with her sister, Betty. To Pat, a First Cousin I admired, loved and appreciated. You will be so very missed to our last days.
