“ I worked with Pat Price at UPI in Washington where she was a wonder of organization mixed with a great sense of humor - including her occasional corrections of my spelling. Of course, my wife and I knew Colonel Bill Price as well and was fortunate enough to be invited to their home for a gathering which included some of the incredible people they knew, including military attaches from the embassies. Pat had great ability to fit in, take over and get things done, whatever was needed. I enjoyed her at work and away with Bill. As did my wife. I can only say I'll miss Pat and Bill.
