

Mr. Patrick Wilfred Barry

October 12, 1925 - March 27, 2016

Patrick Barry, 90, of Roswell, Georgia died on Easter Sunday, March 27 at St George Village surrounded by his family. Patrick was one of four children born to Daniel and Nellie Barry on October 12, 1925 in Mallow, County Cork, Ireland. He graduated from University College Cork with degrees in Chemistry and Physics. He and his wife Rose, also from Mallow, were married in St. Patrick's Cathedral in July of 1955 and raised their three children in Westwood, New Jersey where they were active members of Saint Andrew's Church. They moved to Monmouth Junction, New Jersey once Patrick retired from Amstar Corporation and were members of Saint Cecilia's Roman Catholic Church. Rose passed away at the age of 85 in 2012. Patrick moved in with his oldest daughter Mary Rose in September of 2014 in Belle Mead, NJ and in November of 2015 moved to St. George Village in Roswell, Ga. to be near his youngest daughter, Helen. He is survived by his sister, Joan Barry of Dublin, Ireland, his son and daughter-in-law Patrick and Wendy Barry of Tucson, Arizona, his two daughters and sons in law Mary Rose and John Ghazi of Belle Mead, New Jersey and Helen and Greg Harkness of Milton, Ga. along with grandchildren Sean and Ryan Barry; Liz, Caitlin, John and Colleen Ghazi and Michael, Patrick, and Kelly Rose Harkness. A memorial service will be held in Mallow, County Cork, Ireland on May 28, 2016. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a charity of your choice

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Patrick Wilfred Barry

October 08, 2022 at 11:37 AM