“ As much as we all hated to see you go we know you are in an unspeakable peace with our Lord Jesus Christ. I can just envision God welcoming you to Heaven and seeing Jesus on his right side with out stretched arms waiting on you. I am sure your Mother and Father and your other loved ones that have gone to meet the Lord were there too waiting for that embrace from you after so long. I can just see Mama so clear with her arms outstretched to welcome her brother home. What a reunion! My prayers go out to all the family asking God to comfort you in the hard days ahead. Love you all.
