“ *Tim, I loved your mother. She always spoke her mind and was true to herself. This past summer we were in Sunday school together. She and I sat on the back row. The class wouldn't be dismissed until a final prayer. While everyone was talking, Pauline leaned over to me and said "I wish they'd hush so we can go home". I was thinking the same thing. Fond memories always of you and your mom. Please find strength in her faith in God and her love for you. We often talked about you.
