

Peggy Ann Goldsmith

August 2, 1949 - January 19, 2024

We are sad to announce the passing of Peggy Ann Goldsmith, age 74. Peggy passed away at home in Holly Springs, GA on January 19, 2024 with her husband Lloyd at her side.

Peggy was born and raised in Savannah, GA as the middle child and only daughter of Ralph Smoak and Carrie Smoak. She earned her bachelor's degree at Armstrong State University. She then taught for several years at Richmond Hill High School in Richmond, GA and Savannah High School in Savannah, GA. Peggy and Lloyd got married in 1976. As a Major in the Army, Lloyd was stationed around the country and the world. Peggy and Lloyd raised their family while moving every few years. This allowed them to experience many adventures and cultures. Peggy was proud of her children earning college degrees and was incredibly thankful that they were not saddled with student loans and debt.

Peggy is survived by her husband Lloyd, her daughters Marla (Michael) Gilreath and Elizabeth Goldsmith, her son L.E. Goldsmith, her grandsons James and Daniel Gilreath. She also had many loving cousins, nieces, nephews, in-laws, and friends. Peggy cared greatly for her family and friends. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you to send donations in Peggy's name to the Michael J. Fox Foundation.

Cemetery Details

Cremation - Northside Chapel Crematory

12050 Crabapple Road
Roswell, GA

Tribute Wall

RS

“Peggy's family grew up in Avondale 2 houses down from ours. Lots of memories but one she recalled. On Sunday afternoons, we kids and our Daddy, Peggy too, would sometimes walk from our house over to my Grandmother and Uncle Emmett's house the back way. Must have been late fifties, down to five points, up toward Victory drive, thru the easement to the neighborhood behind the old drive in. On the way back we would stop at the DQ on Skidaway. Becky Jordan Starling

Rebecca Jordan Starling - January 24, 2024 at 01:32 PM