“ Mrs. A - (and family). I hope that time has made light of your grief, while your memories of love and happiness remain strong. I remember the stories you told of Peter in religion class at Catherine McAuley- the love you had for your husband was clear (in retrospect so sweet to witness vicariously). Sincerely Georgina Bailey (former student of Mrs. A).

“ Dear Pat and family,
We were so sorry to hear about Peter's sudden death. He was a nice person to both chat with and have as a neighbor. May thoughts of all he meant to you and of all the good times spent with him bring you comfort.

Fondly,

“ Pete was a wonderful friend to all of us and a genuine nice guy. It will be some time before we can even comprehend this terrible loss for us, his friends.

Tuesday night on the way home from the basketball game he told me that I had finally passed the course he was giving me on how to drive like a NYC cabbie. That meant a lot to me.

We hope to join with you in celebrating the life of this great husband, father, friend and American.
