

Peter S. Brady

January 18, 1953 - April 13, 2013

Peter Scott Brady, 60, a dedicated father, husband and son, who resided in Woodstock, Ga., passed away in his home early the morning of Saturday, April 13, 2013.

The celebration of his life will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, April 20, 2013 at Northside Chapel in Roswell, Georgia. The location of the service is 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Ga. 30075.

He is survived by his wife of 20 years Carmen Brady, his sister Kim Kepner and her husband Daniel Kepner, his brother Jeff and his wife Larissa Brady and his stepmother Ane Brady. His four children; daughter Kelly and her husband Brett Burgess of Canton, daughter Rebecca and her husband Scott Autry of Marietta, son Craig Brady of Marietta and daughter Shelby Brady of Woodstock, Ga. He is preceded in death by his granddaughter Wylie Rose Autry and his father Peter Emmanuel Brady. Finally, he is also survived by his extended family, friends and colleagues.

His greatest accomplishment was being a father to his children.

He was born in Manchester, N.H. to Peter Emmanuel Brady and Beverly Gertrude Myers on January 18, 1953. He graduated from Central high school in 1971 in Manchester, New Hampshire. He attended Northpoint Community

Church and enjoyed Homer Myer's mentoring. He followed in his father and grandfather's footsteps and became an avid outdoorsman, who loved hunting, boating, fishing, barbecuing and camping. His love of cribbage and camping brought him closer to his family with memories that will last forever. He is best known as "XXL BLT" and the "The Scourge of the Chattahoochee" by his friends and loved ones (or mostly himself).

Like his grandfather and father before him, he followed in their career paths in the women's shoe business. At the age of 19, he started working at Butler Shoe Corporation with his father. He worked his way up the business ladder from the retail store to become the head buyer of Butler Shoe Corporation. Later, he went to work in the wholesale side of the women's shoe business at Pacific Footwear in 1987 as a salesman and line builder. After he went to Consolidated Shoe in 2003, he spent another year at ESO Originals. He then left to work for Topline footwear from 2004-2005. Finally, he ended his career working at Consolidated Shoe to this date.

In lieu of flowers, the Brady family suggest that friends and family make donations to the: Brady family in memory of Peter Scott 123 Weatherstone Dr. Woodstock Ga. 30188, and on line at “ Peter Scott, so many memories!! We bought your house on Kemp Rd. Drove you home from more than one happy hour because you knew you couldn't drive. Loved having your friends around. Taught me how to "bar-b-que" ribs with your famous method. We danced in Manhattan, gambled in Vail, CO, walked through many malls together... You're smile, laugh and love of your kids is what I'll remember forever!! You always made me feel like one of the guys, played more liars poker than I'd like to remember (I always beat you.) We even bet over the paper cups that came out of the coffee machine (way back when) when they had poker hands on them. Will never forget all the wonderful times!! You were truly one of a kind!!!##imported-begin##Melinda Mitchell Passmore##imported-end##

“ I worked with Peter for a couple of years. I knew his name before we worked together but we had never met. When i met him, it was like we had known each other for many years. Peter was like that. An instant friend.

One time our team was planning a meeting for a customer in Kansas where I am from. I invited the team over to my house for a BBQ the night before. Peter says "Great! I'll bring the dessert from our bakery." I am thinking... Ya right..you are going to bring the dessert from Atlanta.... A week later Peter walks into my backyard with two boxes of baked goods. The boxes were a little beat up from the trip, but the desserts were wonderful! Who would carry desserts 2000 miles for a co-worker get together?? Peter Scott Brady would... Maybe Peter delivered some baked good to the Man upstairs....Rest in Peace Peter and God Bless...##imported-begin##John Marshall##imported-end##

“ Peter was a gentleman and a friend. Barely knowing me, Peter welcomed me warmly when I moved to Atlanta in 1990.I was lucky to be in his presence many times and enjoyed many laughs. He is in a better place and I am a better person for knowing him. God bless you Peter.##imported-begin##Paul Kascsak##imported-end##

“ It broke my heart to hear about Peter Scott. Even though it's been over 25 years since I've seen him, in many ways it feels like it was only yesterday. I just knew that if I had been lucky enough to run into him, we had the kind of friendship where we could immediately pick up our conversation from the last time that we had seen each other. And that would be back in the old Butler days.

God, we all had some great times together back then. So many of us were from other places yet we found a bond of friendship that will last a lifetime. And yes, Peter Scott's smile and laughter were absolutely contagious. It was really tough to get angry with him even if he sometimes drove us crazy in the ad department because he forgot to give us a shoe that we needed to make a deadline. He and his father were those wonderful Yankees whom everyone liked to tease and to love!

My thoughts and prayers go out to all of Peter's family. I am so sorry for your loss.

And to you, Peter Scott, I will remember you forever. That's a promise.##imported-begin##Bette Richard (was Wall)##imported-end##

“ Peter, old friend , I'll remember you forever. When you first arrived in Atlanta , a long time ago , we became instant friends and fishing buddies. We shared many many days in the "OL' Runt " in search of the first , biggest and most fish competition. As the years passed by , our friendship was always present and valued . I'll miss you . I'm in China right now , but on Saturday I'll celebrate your life with a Jack and a splash.....Wayne###imported-begin##Wayne Wall###imported-end##

“ To Carmen and the Brady family - I worked with Peter Scott for 5 years at Butler's corporate office. I worked in advertising and Peter Scott was on one side of our "cube" and Peter, Sr. on the other. They kept us laughing on a daily basis. Though I've been out of touch with both of them, I've never forgotten either of them nor the kindness they showed or the joy they brought into my life and the lives of many. I am praying for you and your family. Kay Dodd (Herrin) Stokes###imported-begin##Kay Dodd Stokes###imported-end##

“ Carmen - I am truly saddened to hear this. I always ask Mike about you and Peter and the kids and my mother asks as well. She will be saddened to hear about Peter - she remembers the dinners and the jokes fondly. I know we haven't seen each other in a very long time but I think often of you and Peter and the laughs we had. Love always, Richard###imported-begin##Richard Shaer###imported-end##

“ Carman and Family, you can rest assured that Peter was one of the most loved persons that has ever walked on this earth. When Peter entered the room, the whole mood changed. We will miss his laugh, his stories, his smile and his friendship. Every time I ended a conversation with Peter, he always ended with "make sure you say hi to Sheila and the kids for me". Peter truly was "one of a kind" and a very good man. We're going to miss him but our memories of Peter will last forever. You are very much in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Tom and Sheila Blank##imported-end##
