“ Such a nice and caring person. My heart goes out to his family and friends. Heaven gained an angel for sure. Glad it is never a goodbye, just I will see you again my friend. Beautiful story to tell of Phillip. He ask me to be his friend on Facebook years ago. Of course I accepted but had not seen him since high school. He told me he had a crush on my younger sister, which I knew. He went on to tell me that he looked up to me in high school. He thanked me for always being kind to him. That touched me more than words can describe. I am thankful to God for giving me a heart that loves everyone. Phil reminded me that kindness can last for a lifetime.

“ Phip, was the greatest cousin my siblings and I would ever ask for, everything about him was good, We are glad he was part of our lives growing up we all had a great life being able to visit like we did. Our parents made a special point to make sure we knew who our cousins were. When we celebrated special occasions at our grandparents house, we were so happy to see each other, and always had the best time. But when it was time to go home we hated saying goodbye. And still today for me, I hate saying goodbye. Keith, his brother and Phil were outstanding and remarkable people. Their Parents made them who they were and who they are today. Thank you for being a part of our lives. Nelda, Pat, Terri and Joey
